RE: SIGNALFAN

Please be advised that the Signalfan, a color coded device designed to give signals to the batter/runner violates rule 3 Section 6 Article 10: "Objects, other than scorekeeping materials/devices, in the coach's box are prohibited." This Signalfan maybe used in the dugout and for levels of play outside of high school ball, if those governing bodies so allow it.

Umpires should not have allowed this device to be used last year.
