Robbinsville, NJ 08691

Presented by Michael Kaelber, Esq., LEGAL ONE Coordinator for Online Course Development, and John Dicolo, CMAA, Former District Director of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics, Jefferson Township

This workshop will provide a framework for supervising and evaluating coaches, including a model for student athlete practice session "lesson plans", identification of relevant knowledge and skills that should be used for evaluating coaches, and specific expectations regarding the role of coaches in ensuring student safety. It will include a review of key requirements related to supervising student athletes, and protocols that should be in place related to behavior during school athletic events, as well as legal considerations related to addressing student behavior in the locker room, during the school day, and away from school, including student athlete use of social media.

N.J. Dept. of Ed. Professional Development Provider – 3 credit hours; Cancellations will be posted on the NJSIAA website: www.njsiaa.org (T) 609-259-2776 (FAX) 609-259-3047
