

Unified Track 2018 – Spring Season

There was a growth shown in the Unified track program during the 2018 spring season. Thirty two schools have been reported to have run some type of Unified spring track program. Out of these schools 7 competed at the NJSIAA Group Championship Meets at Franklin HS and at Central Regional HS. The other schools have started a Unified track program and have competed against each other in either Invitational or dual meets as preparation for going into full scale NJSIAA competitions in the future.

The following schools are reported as having some type of Unified track this spring:

Jefferson Township, Morristown, Hopatcong, Vernon, Newton, Boonton, Voorhees, Freehold, Howell, Freehold Township, Manalapan, Union City, Cinnaminson, Kingsway, Delsea, Clayton, Hillsborough, South Brunswick, Edison, John P Stevens, Old Bridge, Hamilton West, Matawan, Delaware Valley, Washington Township, Holmdel, Paramus, Steinert, Franklin, Middletown, Mainland, West Windsor Plainboro, Hopwell Valley and Moorestown.

Hopewell Valley, Delsea, Voorhees, Moorestown, Jefferson Township and Freehold Public schools all hosted Unified Invitational Meets this spring.

The following schools took part in the NJSIAA Group Meets:

Hamilton West, Holmdel, Hopewell Valley, Matawan, Moorestown, Morristown, West Windsor Plainsboro.

69 Unified Athletes and their Partners took part in the NJSIAA Group Meet.

At Franklin – Morristown was the Northern Champion

At Central Regional – Hopewell Valley was the Southern Champion.
