PSAT Information and Dates

How Is the PSAT Administered?

When you take the SAT and/or the ACT, you'll have a choice of test centers and dates to choose from. This isn't the case with the PSAT. With the PSAT, you'll take the exam during the school day (unless the exam is on a Saturday) at your high school, on a date that has been predetermined by the College Board, the makers of the PSAT.

The College Board offers a primary test date and an alternate test date, and each school decides which date they will administer the PSAT on. The College Board recommends using the primary test date, and the vast majority of schools will choose that date to administer the PSAT.

Generally, schools will only choose the alternate test date if there are circumstances that make it impossible for them to choose the primary test date. You'll have to take the PSAT on the date that your school offers it.

What Are the Expected PSAT Dates for 2020?

What will the PSAT test date be for 2020? Here are the official 2020 PSAT test dates:

- Primary test day: Wednesday, October 14, 2020
- Saturday test day: October 17, 2020
- Alternate test day: Thursday, October 29, 2020 (formerly October 28)
- NEW test day: Tuesday, January 26, 2021

As mentioned above, each school will choose a test date and inform its students in advance as to when that date will be. Most schools choose the primary test date.
